

Sermon Outline 3.16.08

Zechariah 9:9-17; John 12:12-19

- I. As the King comes there is a call to a right human response.
- II. As the King comes there is a character that is evident.
- III. As the King comes long hoped-for conditions follow.

Blaise Pascal

Penses

“Pride takes you from God and lust binds you to yourself.”

“The sensibility of man to trifles and his insensibility to great things indicates a strange inversion.”

“Our own interest is again a marvelous instrument for nicely putting out our eyes.”